

In 2014, a subject using the name Leonard George Gabbidon rented the below described equipment from a rental company in North Carolina and paid rental on the units for about a year. Subsequently, Gabbidon stopped paying rental and declined to return the equipment. In September, 2015, Gabbidon presented two $10,000 checks to the rental company towards settling past due rentals, both of which were worthless. Gabbidon made promises to return the equipment, but failed to do so.

The company sought assistance with local authorities, and warrants were issued for Gabbidon by Wilson, NC Police:

- File # 16CR050416 - Failure to return hired motor vehicle
- File # 16CR050417 - Felony Worthless Check

Please forward this alert to equipment businesses and Law Enforcement who may encounter the subject.

The subject is reported to work on commercial property construction such as hotels and shopping centers, and has worked in the following areas:
